

Financial Peace University at St. Columbkille

We are Joe and Jen Holzapfel. We have four boys, and our oldest attends St. Columbkille School. We have been parishioners of St. Columbkille for a little over 8 years.

We started Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace in January 2014 and again in 2015. We started to facilitate FPU last year here at St. Columbkille. Through our journey of FPU we have become debt free in 2016! What we have learned through FPU, and what we hope to achieve, is to have families have peace with their finances and to be able to live their life without the worry of money. Dave Ramsey gives us tools to help achieve getting out of debt, how to make the most of our income and the importance of giving.

We will be starting our FPU class on Sunday, February 12 from 6-8:30pm at the Steinhausen Center. This is a nine week class, and we will be meet every Sunday for the 9 weeks. You can register for our class through this website:
